

IT IS ALL THE BIGGER WHEN TOLD IN LITTLE WORDS, AND IN THESE IT IS PROFITABLE

CITY'S SHARE OF LEE'S FUNERAL

The Special Committee's Report Took the Usual Course.

WANT BATTLE ABBEY FUND

Resolution Offered to Transfer Forty Thousand Dollars.

The Board of Aldermen met last night in called session to dispose of business left over from the last meeting. The work was of a routine nature.

The special committee on the funeral of General Fitzhugh Lee presented its report of the expenses entailed upon that occasion, which amounted to $1,700. The report was referred to the Finance Committee.

A resolution transferring $40,000 from the Battle Abbey fund to the settling basin expense account, for the purpose of constructing a conduit from the basin to the pump house, was also referred to the Finance Committee.

The resolution increasing the duties and the pay of the physicians to the poor, was concurred in.

Police Ordinance Laid Over.
The ordinance increasing the membership of the police department by the addition of ten men, was, on the motion of Mr. Dabney, tabled until the next meeting night.

An amendment to the "dead animal" ordinance, by which the owners of same may have a chance to dispose of them, was adopted.

The "lynch" ordinance, providing for work for prisoners in the city jail, was concurred in, and now goes to the Mayor. The ordinance given to the judge of the Hustings Court the authority to select able-bodied prisoners in the city jail for work at cleaning out the city sewers.

An important ordinance in reference to the question of annexation, which was introduced by Mr. Dabney, and directed the City Attorney to request the judge of the Circuit Court of Henrico county to delay hearings in the matter of the request of the citizens of Fairmont to be annexed to the city, now in that court, until the proceedings come to a head, until the city. If such delay cannot be secured the City Attorney is directed to proceed at once in co-operation with the people of Fairmont.

CHILDREN'S CONCERT.

Programme Will Embrace Number of Excellent Solists.

At the concert to be given next Monday night the children's chorus, which has been assisted by some of the best known favorite, will be heard at best advantage in the Bomber's hall, with full orchestra.

The solo obligato in that quaint Dutch lullaby, "Wynchen, Wynchen, and Nod," will be sung by Mrs. Walter Mercer, and as she has sung this part with the children's chorus so thoroughly in sympathy with her interpretation of the song, it will prove one of the most attractive numbers on the programme.

Mr. W. Douglas Gordon, a soloist, possesses a baritone voice of rare quality, which he will use in the most artistic manner, and his appearance before an Academy audience is really an event in the local musical world.

The many friends of Mr. John Powell will be glad to hear him in the beautiful "Hungarian Fantasia." Accompanied by the orchestra, Walter C. Mercer, conductor, Solists—Miss Mamie Harrison, soprano; Mrs. Walter Mercer, soprano; Mr. W. Douglas Gordon, baritone; Mr. John Powell, pianist. Accompanists—Miss Mary Shelton, Mr. Shepherd Webb and Mr. Louis E. Weitzel.

NEW MINING COMPANY.

Preparations to Operate Gold Mine on a Large Scale.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MONTICELLO, Va., May 18.—The Virginia Mining and Development Company, a combination of Pennsylvania capitalists, recently organized and an application for charter filed at Richmond on April 21st, have bought the old Leopold mining property adjacent to Morrisville, and are rapidly getting the machinery in the ground to erect a new ten-stamp mill, and shafts will be sunk and tunnels run as soon as miners can be secured.

The size of the plant will be rapidly increased if the ore holds out as rich as that in sight. The property in question contains about 20 acres and includes some very valuable deposits of gold, the full magnitude of which is not known. The mine is comparatively new and undeveloped, but it has always been regarded as one rich in promise.

The officers of the Virginia Mining and Development Company are as follows: William B. Lindsay, president and manager, Carlisle, Penn.; P. T. Mulholland, treasurer, Carlisle, Penn.; Frank Arnold, secretary, Washington, D. C.; H. W. Mulholland, home attorney, Scranton, Pa.; David H. C. Mulholland, attorney, Virginia. Directors—William B. Lindsay, E. J. Mulholland, Frank Arnold, William Mulholland, Carlisle, Penn., and Robert Maxwell, Jermyn, Penn.

Mr. Gookins Goes West.

Mr. George B. Gookins, who for the last season was director of the Westminster Club, has removed his family to Middleburg, where he will open a school for the study of music. Mr. Gookins during his short residence in Richmond made a host of friends who regret his departure and wish him all manner of success.

Taming of the Shrew.

To-night and to-morrow matinee and night will end the engagement of the Charles E. Blaney Amusement Company at the Bijou, and following "The Factory Girl" will come next week Walter Edwards in "The Taming of the Shrew." The Edwards Company is an old favorite here.
